A PLEA FOR THE SAILOR. AN ODE.

BY MRS. MARY S. B. DANA. Tune-" Sebastian Back." A cry fills all the air ! Christian! it calls on thee! Help for the mariner Whose home is on the sea! Ye rich! ye poor! it cries to you! Salvation for the sailor too!

He hath a noble heart-Free as the mountain wave : But oh! your aid impart! He hath a soul to save! In all you give will God delight. The rich man's gold—the widow's mite.

When roars the stormy blast, And billows mount on high. When, from the rocking mast The yards and canvass fly-Though hope depart, if God be there, The Sailor's heart shall feel no fear.

While we, secure from harm. On downy pillows sleep, The Sailor feels the storm-Tossed on the raging deep: His home the seja—the wave he rides— His heart still brave-whate'er betides.

Ye dwellers on the land, Beneath your peaceful shade, Stretch forth the willing hand, And give the Sailor aid: Joyful to learn the way to Heaven, He will not spuin the blessing given.

And when Religion's voice Is heard o'er all the sea, Then shall Heaven rejoice, And earth keep jubilee! When land and sea, in loud accord, Shout hallelujahs to the Lord!

A WIFE WANTED. Ye fair ones, attend! I've an offer to make you; In Hymen's soft bands I am anxious to live, For better, for worse, a companion I'll take me, Provided she fills the description I give.

I neither expect or can hope for perfection, For that never tras a bachelor's lot; But, choosing a wife, I would make a selection Which many in my situation would not.

I'd have-let me see-I'd not have a beauty, For beautiful women are apt to be vain; Yet with a smell share, I would think it a duty To take her, be thankful, and never complain

Her form must be good, no art to constrain it, And rather above than below middle size; A something (it puzzles my brain to explain it) Like eloquent language must flow from her eyes.

She must be well bred or I could not respect her Good natured and modest, but not very coy-Her mind well informed-'tis the purified nectar That sweetens the cup of hymenial joy.

Have practical knowledge of household affairs And make it a part of her highest enjoyment, To soften my bouble and lighten my cares.

But not to exceed twenty-five at the most, And the girls of that age being everywhere plenty I hope to get one of that numerous host.

For glitter and show, or the pomp of high lifewish to be bound by the cords of affection-And now I have drawn you a sketch of a wife.

And wish to be bound by the conjugal band, They will please to step forward-they know the conditions,

Inquire of the printer-I'm always at hand.

DOMESTIC HAPPINESS. Dirty and ragged and making a noise; Some calling for this, and others for that; And Bill, the sly rogue, with a sorrowful phiz, in thy face, but let me be the corn that lies at Sitting down on the hearth to examine each piece! And if one is the widest, or thickest, or longest, Let him that's the weakest, beware of the strongest

Each tells his own story and tries to defend it; "It won't do, you young rogue, a boxed ear must end it !"

The Farmer.

It does one's heart good to see a merry round faced farmer. So independent, and yet so free from vanities and pride. So rich, and vet so industrious-so patient and persevering in his calling, and yet so kind, social and obays he to the owner. No. Don't your set a mark on you and sweat it out with wife? The business that has come before this assembly during its present session has been, in many respects, of a most agitating character calling for earnest consideration, and exhibiting in various instances, more of personal prejudice, and individual animosity, or what has seemed to be such, than becometh a convention of christians—in other words, a religious brotherhood. The charges brought against Dr. Hawkes with regard to his appointment as Bishop of Mississippi, emenated chiefly, it is stated, from the pen of the supposed delinquency of Dr. Hawkes in the supposed delinquency of Dr. Hawkes in the supposed delinquency of Dr. Hawkes in the management of St. Thomas Hall, Finshing, L. I., the head of which institution he was for L. I., the head of which institution he was for two or three years previous to his election as as if he had been a courtier of King Rene's Bishop of Mississippi. On Friday, Dr. Hawkes, in full assembly, made his own defence, which is pronounced by the Philadelphia Gazette to have been full of cogent reasoning, and with all touchingly eloquent.—

The Church—a large one, with accommodation for more than a thousand people, was crowded by a dense mass from organ to pulpit. But towards the centre of the Church were all eyes turned. There stood Dr. Hawkee, as feebled and chafed with his long watching and the terrible suspence of his position, he was vindicating the character which to him was so dear, but which in the hands of others, had been as a bauble. It was impossible, indeed to listen to the tones of his voice, broken as they were by the awful ordeal through which he had passed, without venture to say that never, except in the single fication, made something of the same vow cess. case of Sheridan's famous speech on the Hastings impeachment, was a tribute so high paid to eloquence. ### A Honey-Moon of three Months.

A late number of "Blackwood's Magazine" contains a story, in which is described a honey-moon which will interest, especially, our fair readers, while it may well he received as "a caution" by those "made of sterner stuff." If such a honey-moon of three months could. by any possibility, be prolonged to as many years, who would be willing, at its close, to "be buried with his heels upward." We "I swear, to morrow—nay, here—now—

A Thrilling Incident!

We find the following thrilling advent related in a late number of the New York Weekly Messenger, but whether it is from the pen of Major Noah or no, is more than

I passed up the natural avenue, and came upon the green. My feelings were very peetical as I walked slowly towards the village

Then it was no great stretch of the imagination to fancy that the white handed creatures around me with their pouting lips, and artless innocence, were beings of a higher sphere. As my feelings were thus divided between the beauties and blessings of the two worlds, and rapt in a sort of poetical devotion, I detected some glances at me of an animated

I need not describe the sensations experienced by a youth, when the eyes of a besiti-ful woman rest for a length of time upon his countenance, and when he imagines himself to be an object of interest to her. I returned her glances with interest, and threw all the tenderness into my eyes which the scene, my meditations, and the preacher's discourse had inspired in my heart, doubting not the fair young damsel possessed kindred feelings with myself-that we were drinking together at the fountain of inspiration. NEW HANOVER ELECTION. The Democracy of New Hanover to their

Brothren throughout the State, greeting. Under this head, Democratic brethren of the State, we propose to offer you a few remarks on the result in our county. And the first thing we would say is, THAT THE DEMOCRACY OF NEW HANOVER COUNTY HAS DONE NOBLY, UNDER ALL THE CIR-CUMSTANCES!! It may be asked, How can this be? In August, New Hanover gave Hoke a majority of 818, and now she only gives Polk a majority of 40 uch is the result as exhibited in able below. In explanation of this result, we propose to say a few words : In the first place, our readers will see that the Democratic vote has increased from that although our triends ey have still done better s it then, that our majority has decreased? In this way: It is a well known fact, that in the sickly month of August, quite a number of our citizens go off to the North, to the Mountains, or some other more healthy location. It is equally well known, that that portion of the community which can afford to spend the summer months at fashionable watering places, belongs, without almost any exception, to the Federal party. Those people-absentees in August-were all at home to vote for Clay. Again: A great many Seafairing men, who claim Wilmington for their domicil, were in port on Monday last, who were absent at the August election. Still again, there were, we understand, some 40 maiden whig voters. These facts will, we think, account for the increased whig vote polled in this county. The returns show an increased Democratic vote in the county, consequently the coons have made nothing from our ranks. No, the Democracy of New Hanover has proved itself as firm and unchangeable as the eternal principles it avows.

Again we would say, THE DEMO-CRATS OF NEW HANOVER HAVE BEHAVED THEMSELVES NOBLY. If our friends elsewhere knew what we have to contend with here, they would say so also. If they knew as we do, that the Federal party in the Town of Wilmington has almost all the patronage to bestow-if they knew that the vast influence of the Rail Road is brought to bear against usif they knew the desperate and untiring efforts which the whigs of this place have been making for the last six months,—we say if our friends throughout the State knew these things as well as we do, they would agree with us in saying that we have done well-nobly.

> Twenty-Six Electoral VOTES FOR POLK & DALLAS. The Democracy of this noble State, unappalled by the almost overwhelming monied & manufacturing combinations, which were brought to bear against it, has achieved glorious victory over all its powerful enemies. Yes, noble, gallant Pennsylvania has covered herself with a wreath of lanrels on one of the hardest fought political fields that the annals of our Republic have vet exhibited-a wreath of laurels, too. which no length of time can possibly fade or be-dim. Where now is all the loud and bragging gasconade about the magic influences which surrounded the name of Henry Clay? It is all now hushed forever, by the loud and enthusiastic peals of rejoicing which are ascending from the strong lungs of Democracy, from one extremity of our happy Union to another. The result in Pennsylvania exhibits to the Coons the fact that Henry Clay is even weaker than the Federal party; and God knows we thought that it was weak enough. We have no room this week to give the returns seriatim, but we will give them in a condensed form so far as heard from. In the forty counties from which returns have come to hand, Polk's majority is 3169! In the same counties in Oct. last, when we carried the State by nearly 5,000. Shunk's majority was only about 300; so that now, it is, we think, a fair calculation to set down Polk's majority in the State,

VIRGINIA.

From this State, owing to the fact that in most of the counties, in consequence of bad weather, the polls were kept open three days, we have nothing definite. In the Baltimore Sun, (neutral) the only pa. per which we have yet seen with any anproximation to final returns, the majorities in 26 counties are put down, and then the following remarks are made by the Editor:

"This shows a democratic gain of 382 since the Harrison election. It may be oper to remark, however, that Lond is reported higher than given above, and that Page and Rockingham are thought to be incorrect, sufficient time not having elapsed since the election to hear full returns from them. ### OHIO.

Nothing definite has yet come to hand from this State either. The reported returns from a few counties however, if they could be relied on, would seem to indicate that the abolitionists are voting for Clay. If such be the case, it is not improbable that she will cast her vote for that old coon. This we only give as conjecture. We will be able to tell all about it next number.

MARYLAND.

As usual, this little Federal State is true to her old notions, and will no doubt, poll her vote for Clay and coonskins. We can do without her.

We have not yet received intelligence from any other State, upon which to hang even a conjecture. Some flying reports reached here from Georgia, but nothing to be relied on. In our next number, however, we shall be able to announce to our readers that JAMES K. POLK, IS PRE-SIDENT OF THESE U. STATES.

Tennessee Safe!

The Home of the Hickories "Eager for the Fray." We now have the RELIABLE DATA before us, from sources the most unquestionable. which enables us to make a formal announcement to the Democracy throughout the Union, that TENNESSEE will, on Tuesday, the 5th day of November next. east Thirteen Electoral Votes for JAMES K. POLK and GEORGE M. DALLAS. We have taken great care to ascertain this fact; and we are now as perfectly certain of it, as though it were already officially recorded. Tennesseeans have determined to do it-they know their exact strength -they are prepared to do it-they are eager for the frav."

Growing Cotton in Cheshire .- Mr. Maury. son of the respected gentleman who for so many years filled the office of American Consul at Liverpool, has recently been making a successful experiment in the growth of cotton, at his residence, Liscard near the mouth of the Mersey, on the Cheshire side. A fine specimen of Sea Island was exhibited a few days back, in the exchange news room. It consisted of two bulbs, one open, exhibiting a beautiful cotton, the other closed. The cotton looked so natural, so much like a sample taken from a bag, that several gentlemen refused to believe that it belonged to the plant to which it was attached; and one of them was so pertinacious in his scepticism, that Mr. Jones, the respected master of the exchange tore open the closed bulb, and exhibited, to his astonishment, similar cotton in its natural prison. It is kept in a temperature of about Frightful inundation in Sweden .- Letters from Stockholm of the 24th ult, represent nearly all the Swedish provinces to have suffered severely from inundation, but in the greatest degree the country bordering on the river Roeyo, which rose thirteen feet in less than an hour, rushing in torrents upon the large village of Konradslout and its environs, which were quickly submerged, sweeping a way all the houses and factories, and twentytwo windmills, and in fact leaving nothing but a mass of ruins. About 500 perished, and the loss is estimated at 800,000 rix dollars, 1,200,000 francs. Subscriptions for the relief of the sufferers have been opened at Stockholm, at the head of which stand the names of the King and Queen, with considerable contributions annexed.

Iron Trade.-The monthly meeting of the Scotish ironmasters, was held at Glasgow, on Wednesday, the 2d instant, at which there was a full attendance, and the utmost harmony and good feeling prevailed. A code of regulations was adopted by which any undue increase in the make will be prevented; fair remunerating prices are expected to be mairtained, and the market protected against such fluctuations as have recently been experienced. The present light stocks, and renewed demand, would have warranted an advance, but it was considered more prudent at this season of the year, when exports usually fall off, to continue the price of pig iron at £2 15s. per ton, for all qualities, until the effects of the recent panie had completely subsided, and the consumers had an opportunity of supplying price has thus been fixed for the home market, it was agreed that, in the event of stocks increasing, permission would be given to allow a serue to foreign merchants, in order that a vent might be found at all times for any surplus produce, and thus the supply regulaed to meet the demand. Upon the whole, matters have borne a cheering aspect, and, ander the sound and mature regulations which bave been so unanimously adopted, the future prosperity of this important branch of trade may be considered, in some measure, secur-

Every thing appeared quiet throughout EuEvery thing appeared quiet throughout Eu-State, and that the condition of its finances. as well as the interests of the vast and various provinces or kingdoms of which it is composed, force it upon their constant attention. The revenue return for the quarter ending on 10th inst, was of the most gratifying character. The vessels sailing for America take but few goods. Shipments being few, freights were low. The cheese by the Great Western was in excellent order, and sold readily at the quotations. So growing is the feeling in favor of American provisions generally, that it promises to become one of the most thriving trades between the two countries .-The wheat markets of London and Liverpool are inactive. By the average returns of the kingdom, the duties remain unaltered. Previous rates have been reluctantly paid. In American bonds there has been but little do-ing, and they remain unaltered in value. Mo-ney has been in increased demand; first rate bills are 21 to 21, and others 3 to 5 per c't. "LIVERPOOL, Oct 11.

"Cotton .- The only change from the last week which has taken place in this market is the greater inquiry and confidence that have prevailed, and the increased amount of business transacted on speculation, particularly in the inferior and ordinary qualities of Anterican descriptions, which have been sold at prices, not previously quoted, though they can not be said to be lower in proportion than those which had been before current. The general conviction that such very poor descriptions of Cotton would not on account of the present low prices be picked in the ensuing season has probably led to the purchase of these kinds. In this belief also may be found a strong motive against the excessive crop supposed by some as likely to be grown in 1844-5, for at the price of 27d to 3fd, at which rates some parcels have been sold this week, it is not likely that the planters will see any reason for picking late or carefully. Nothing indeed but the excitement of the early part of the year has caused the qualities alluded to to be gathered or sent to market. The general appearance of trade in Manchester never was better, and the profits both with spinners or manufacturers are perhaps greater, taking the extent of business into account, than ever remembered. No stocks of Yarn or Goods are on hand, and every thing made is instantly disposed of. Brazils and Egyptians are both difficult of sale, and are at lower prices. Surats are without change, but holders desirous to sell.

TERMS.—22 50 if paid in advance; $2 00 at the end of three months; $3 50 at the expiration of the year.—Na paper dispaid, except at the option of the publishers.

Having been induced, at the solicitation of some of the members of the Democratic party, to take charge of the Republican Press in this place, we will hereafter, on every Friday morning, issue a Democratic paper, under the above title, at the office of the late "Wilmington Messenger," in the Town of Wilmington.

As we have given a brief outline of the principles the "Journal" will advocate in our first number, we think it unnecessary again to relterate the political doctrines it will be our constant and earnest endeavor to inculcate. On the present occasion, therefore, we will merely state, that the "Journal" will be the uncompromising opponent of each and every "link" in the whole of the great chain" of Whig measures—a United States Bank—a Protective Taris—the Bankrupt Act—Internal Improvements the "great chain" of Whig measures—a United States Bank—a Protective Taris—the Bankrupt Act—Internal Improvements by the General Government, &c., &c.—While on the other hand it will, so far as our humble abilities will enable us, be the firm friend and supporter of the Constitution as it was left us by our fathers; and of a strict construction of that Constitution, thereby ensuring the rights of the several States which compose the Confederacy. But we set cut with the idea of not going into details. It would be a needless tax upon the reader's time. Suffice it to say, that the "Journal" will be a Democratic Paper, and will always advocate Democratic men and Democratic measures.

Although the "Journal" will be a political paper, yet, in order that it may also be agreeable to the general reader, its columns will always be open to such items of intelligence as will be interesting to the Farmer, the Merchant, the Mechanic, &c. Agriculture, Trade, the state of the Markets, &c., together with a slight glance at polite literature occasionally, will receive our attention.

We hope we will not be considered too "personal in our remarks" when we offer a few suggestions to our friends touching the necessity there exists for keeping on foot a Democratic Press in the Town of Wilmington.

In the first place, Wilmington is a place of the greatest commercial importance of any in the State ! It is situated in a Democratic District: there is a great deal of intercourse carried on by the citizens of the lower portion of the State with this place, and consequently a Press here would be calculated to do as much good, in diffusing information, as perhaps at any other point in the State. Again, there are, we believe, three Federal to every one Democratic paper in the State, and this we feel confident, is the reason why North Carolina placed a Whig in her Gubernatorial Chair at our recent election: for we feel assured that it only requires a fair comparison to be instituted between the policy of the Federal and Democrate parties to ensure for the latter the requires a fair comparison to be instituted between the policy of the rederal and Democratic parties to ensure for the latter the most triumphant success. Well now, it is impossible for a Press to be kept up unless our friends will patronize it by subscribing themselves and inducing others to "go and do likewise." For, gentle reader, we suppose you are aware, and if you are not, we will tell you, that Printers and Editors are so far like other mortals that it requires something more than air to feed and kind wishes to clothe them. Therefore, we hope that every Democrat into whose hands this Prospectus may fall, will do all he can to insure the success of the "Journal" and the cause of Democracy.
